Offices for rent are offered in the well-known business complex Tecnopark del Vallès, Phase 2, a consolidated and benchmark environment for companies looking to establish themselves in a strategic area of the Barcelona metropolitan area. The spaces are located in an exclusive office building designed to accommodate professional activity, with a strong corporate image, shared services, and an active business environment that encourages synergy between companies. There are two sectors of 196 m² each, and they can be divided to create two separate offices. The offices feature functional and modular surfaces, adaptable to different types of activity, from individual offices to larger workspaces or open-plan configurations. The complex has good road connections, with direct access to main routes such as the C-58 and AP-7, facilitating mobility towards Barcelona, Vallès, and the rest of the region. An excellent opportunity for companies seeking to establish their headquarters in a professional, well-connected environment with strong business potential.
