Office located on an upper floor of a building, featuring spacious, bright interiors and a functional layout combining work areas and ancillary spaces. It offers a large open-plan workspace, equipped with office desks and task chairs, with capacity for several workstations. Large windows provide plenty of natural light and offer views of the surrounding urban landscape. The office also includes a kitchenette equipped with kitchen units, a worktop, sink and space for dining or taking breaks. Additional storage solutions include cupboards, metal shelving and modular storage units. The space features a versatile layout and neutral, functional finishes, making it ideal for a range of professional activities in a comfortable and practical working environment.
