Located in the heart of the Eixample, this unique coworking space is set in a carefully renovated regal building that combines historic charm with contemporary design. With 500 m² of inspiring workspace, the space offers a bright and thoughtfully designed environment, featuring high ceilings, abundant natural light, and a large private terrace that brings the outdoors into the workday. Every corner is designed to foster focus, creativity, and meaningful exchange: from the kitchen for a coffee break to the elegant common areas that encourage connection among professionals. More than just a workspace, it is a carefully curated community that brings together entrepreneurs, small businesses, and independent professionals who value both aesthetics and ambition. Among its services are package reception, meeting rooms, a kitchen equipped with complimentary coffee, air conditioning, high-speed internet and WiFi, as well as printer, photocopier, and scanner to cover daily needs. A professional environment designed to inspire and connect in the very center of Barcelona.
