6,860 € | 560 m²

In the well-established Les Corts district of Barcelona, this spacious 560 m² office is presented for companies that value flexibility, natural light and a strategic location. It is a versatile space, currently divided, with the possibility of being unified through a removable partition wall, allowing it to be easily adapted to different working models, from corporate headquarters to creative hubs. The main office is organised around a representative reception area, two large meeting rooms, a storage area and a generous open-plan space with five glass-fronted offices that create a sense of openness. It also features an equipped office kitchen, dining area and two restroom modules. The second office, ideal as an independent or complementary area, offers a functional open-plan space, three additional offices and a restroom. The property stands out for its brightness, views over a landscaped area, parquet flooring, LED lighting, glass partitions, zoned ducted air conditioning and a split system. Located in a mixed-use building with concierge service exclusively for offices and direct access to parking via lift, this property is surrounded by services, local shops and excellent public transport connections, including metro lines L3 and L5, as well as several bus routes.
