Magnificent office in the heart of Barcelona, located in a representative building with concierge service, ideal for carrying out your business activity in one of the city's most exclusive and central areas. The property offers a spacious and exceptionally bright workspace thanks to its large floor-to-ceiling windows, which flood every corner with natural light. Its flexible layout allows easy adaptation to your company's needs, with the possibility of incorporating a reception or secretary area at the entrance, providing a professional and welcoming image from the very first moment. It features a private bathroom, ensuring total comfort and independence for the team. Notable features include light wooden flooring, walls in neutral and bright tones, a ceiling fitted with acoustic panels, and carefully designed lighting with hanging designer lamps. All of this in a privileged setting, surrounded by services and with excellent public transport connections: metro, FGC, buses, and Bicing. A unique opportunity for small companies seeking a prime location with all amenities. Community fees and property tax included.
