New project in the Parc Tecnològic del Vallès. Spectacular and spacious offices. The office, located on Carrer dels Argenters in Cerdanyola del Vallès, is within the Parc Tecnològic del Vallès, a well-established business area focused on technology and service companies. It is a professional environment with modern office buildings, functional and modular spaces, and shared services such as reception and security. The location stands out for its excellent connection to Barcelona and quick access to highways, as well as on-site parking, making daily work routines easier. It is a quiet, corporate area, ideal for professional activities, although with a more limited commercial offer and some dependence on cars for commuting. Feel free to contact us for more information.
