Located in a mixed-use building, the office is divided into partitions and has central heating, two interior toilets, a small kitchen with an office and six offices, one of which is perfect to be used as a meeting room due to its size superior to the rest. The office is in perfect condition and includes the furniture, which enables the future tenant to enjoy it immediately. The building has a doorman and a small storage room is included in the rent. Well connected, it can be accessed from the Pinar de Chamartín metro station, in addition to having several nearby bus lines, which greatly facilitates access to the workplace.
