Magnificent office building where we have a 130 m² office available. The office is divided by partitions into a reception area, two private offices, a large open work area, and two bathrooms. The office features: Network installation. Automated lighting in the main room, and LED lighting throughout the office. A connection to a security alarm system used by banks and jewelry stores is installed. Private freight elevator. Office and kitchen furniture. The classically styled building offers a concierge service. We highlight the large windows overlooking Gran Vía, with panoramic views. The area is well-connected with several bus lines and a nearby metro station. Numerous amenities, such as restaurants and shops, are also close by. Can you imagine living here?
