aProperties presents this fabulous, newly renovated office located on the first floor of a building right on Paseo de la Castellana. Being an entirely exterior space with frontage on two wide streets, the interior benefits from abundant natural light that floods the entire office. Its interior layout offers great versatility and the potential to be adapted to the tenant's specific needs. It features two spacious restrooms—one of which is accessible—as well as a large, modern, fully equipped kitchen/break area. The building is equipped with two passenger elevators and a freight elevator. Parking spaces are available. Excellent transport links, whether by public or private transport. Community fees are included in the rent. Can you picture yourself working here?
