In one of Chamberí's most prestigious business addresses, Ríos Rosas, lies this elegant 140 m² office located on the fifth floor, designed for companies that value workspace quality, corporate prestige, and a strategic location in Madrid. Its main highlight is natural light. Large windows facing Ríos Rosas Street flood every room throughout the day, creating an open, comfortable, and sophisticated atmosphere that enhances team well-being and projects an excellent image to clients and collaborators. The office features a balanced and highly functional layout. A spacious open-plan area provides the necessary flexibility for collaborative work models, while an independent executive office offers the required privacy for management or leadership roles. The meeting room integrates seamlessly into the layout, making it an ideal space for presentations, strategic meetings, or client encounters. The property is completed by a perfectly integrated kitchenette/breakroom and two restrooms, fully equipping the space to meet the operational needs of businesses seeking convenience and efficiency without sacrificing a polished image. Situated along one of Madrid's most established business axes, the office enjoys a dynamic environment surrounded by rest [...]
