Office with views of El Retiro located in an elegant, classic 1925 building. This office combines the charm of stately architecture with bright, modern spaces. With a floor area of 600 m², it stands out for its exterior balconies and abundant natural light, offering privileged views of El Retiro Park. The layout provides a functional and prestigious organization, with spacious work areas, independent offices, and versatile spaces adaptable to different professional needs. The office features central heating included in the rent, a ducted air conditioning system, and community fees and property tax (IBI) included. Its location is unbeatable: opposite El Retiro and in one of Madrid's most iconic and prestigious areas, close to Atocha station and with excellent connections via metro, Cercanías trains, and several bus lines. An exclusive space, filled with light and character, ideal for companies looking for a distinctive headquarters in the heart of the city. Can you imagine working here?
