32,000 € | 931 m²

Located in an elegant classic building from 1925, this duplex office combines the charm of stately architecture with modern, bright spaces. With a surface area of 931 m², it stands out for its exterior balconies and abundant natural light, offering privileged views of Retiro Park. The layout, divided over two floors, offers a functional and representative organization, with spacious work areas, independent offices, and versatile spaces adaptable to different professional needs. The office has central heating included in the rent, a ducted air conditioning system, and community fees and property taxes included. Its location is unbeatable: opposite the Retiro Park and in one of the most emblematic and prestigious areas of Madrid, close to Atocha station and excellent connections to the metro, Cercanías, and several bus lines. An exclusive space, full of light and full of character, ideal for companies looking for a distinctive headquarters in the heart of the city. Can you imagine working here?
