Premium office in the District of Salamanca, Madrid, located in a classic estate from the early 20th century. Elegant and bright space, completely oriented to the outside, with large windows that face a main square on street level with natural view and luminosity. High ceilings, with aesthetics inspired by first-class banking firms and porcelain floors, neutral-toned walls, office license. The furniture can be included, its spacious meeting rooms and abundant natural lighting on street floor will bring an exclusive professional image. Can you imagine working here?
