APproperties presents this bright, spacious office located next to Paseo de la Castellana, in the Bernabéu area, within an exclusive office building. The property enjoys excellent connectivity via both public and private transport, with a wide range of amenities in the surrounding area. It features a very large open-plan space—entirely exterior-facing—that can be easily adapted to the specific layout and configuration requirements of the end user. The office is equipped with a ducted heating and cooling system, as well as central heating via radiators. It is accessible to individuals with reduced mobility and includes adapted restrooms. The rent covers community fees, heating, maintenance of fire safety equipment, and elevator service. Parking spaces are available very close to the office. Can you imagine working here?
