Office in very good condition, designed as a spacious and functional area that can easily adapt to different work models. The surface is mostly open-plan, allowing flexible arrangement of workstations, collaborative zones, or operational areas according to each company's needs. It features an independent office separated by a glass partition, providing privacy without sacrificing natural light. The property includes raised flooring, facilitating the organization of cabling and installations, and offers excellent natural light throughout the day, creating a comfortable and productive working environment. Located in a well-established corporate area, the office enjoys good views and a professional image, making it a very attractive option for companies seeking to establish themselves in a representative, modern, and easily adaptable space for various business uses. An ideal office for companies that value versatility, brightness, and a professional environment to carry out their activities. Community fees and property tax (IBI) included in the price.
